Scenic Drives

Some of the most spectacular and beautiful vistas you'll ever experience are easily accessed by taking any, or all, of Utah Valley's seasonal scenic drives, which include Hobbie Creek, Spanish Fork, American Fork, Payson and Provo Canyon. Each drive offers a variety of unlimited recreational opportunities.

More Information

- Alpine Loop Scenic Backway — 20-mile thoroughfare through lush vegetation and thick groves of aspen. Fee required for use of recreation facilities
- Hobbie Creek Canyon — Beginning in Springville and looping to Strawberry Reservoir and back to Hwy 89. Southeast of Spanish Fork, this route offers an excellent tour of the Southern Wasatch Range. Along the way are campgrounds, a golf course, picnic areas, and a portion of the Great Western Trail. Parts of the route are unpaved and should be traveled cautiously by a four-wheel-drive vehicle
- Nebo Loop National Scenic Byway — One of America's National Scenic Byways, this byway winds 32 miles up 11,928-foot Mt. Nebo, Utah Valley's highest mountain. Incredible overlooks offer spectacular vistas of communities below
- Provo Canyon Scenic Byway — 28-mile byway from Provo to Heber Valley offering views of stunning rock walls, Bridal Veil Falls and one of the world's premier fly-fishing rivers

Tibble Fork Reservoir

The Canyons and Provo River

Utah Valley's canyons, conveniently located just minutes off Interstate 15, offer freshwater lakes, sparkling streams and hundreds of miles of trails. World-class rock climbing can be found in Spanish Fork, Provo, Rock and American Fork Canyons. Experience a day of rafting, kayaking or fly-fishing on Provo River's pristine waters, or take a ride through the Wasatch Mountains on the historic Heber Valley Railroad.

More Information

- Mount Timpanogos can be summited from the Timpanoos trail
- Provo River Parkway trail parallels the Provo River beginning at Utah Lake and ending at Vivian Park, with easy access points along the way

Timpanogos Cave

Explore the amazing wonders of Timpanogos Cave National Monument on a guided tour. You'll learn about formations and features of the cave, like the famous stalactite, "The Great Heart of Timpanogos." After your cave journey, enjoy the canyon by driving the Alpine Scenic Loop, where you'll find trails, Cascade Springs and, if you're lucky, a moose and other wildlife.

More Information

- The Peaks Ice Arena — a 2002 Winter Olympics venue — is a premier venue for ice hockey, figure skating, and indoor soccer
- Utah Lake is Utah's largest freshwater lake and is a popular spot for fishing, sailing, picnicking and camping

Museums, Art and Heritage

The Crandall Historical Printing Museum in Provo is the only place in the world where you can see a working re-creation of Johannes Gutenberg's print shop. And at Camp Floyd/Stagecoach Inn and Museum, you'll learn Utah's connection to the Civil War and Pony Express. Visit Springville Museum of Art, Utah's oldest visual arts museum, or visit one of Brigham Young University's many museums.

More Information

- Brigham Young University Museum of Art offers a permanent collection of more than 17,000 pieces, and hosts a diverse array of traveling exhibitions each year
- The Covey Center for the Arts, located in downtown Provo, offers a comprehensive variety of artistic events, including concerts, exhibits, plays and dance productions
- The SCERA offers outdoor theater performances, art gallery exhibits, feature films, a museum and more
